The following recommendation of the Faculty-Administration Committee was presented by Dean Hicks:

The Faculty-Administration Committee recommends to the Faculty the adoption of the following

* Interim Social Code

The following is adopted as an Interim Social Code until March 19, 1965, or until a permanent social code should be adopted before that date. In the event that a permanent social code is not adopted by March 19, 1965, the Interim Social Code may be renewed once for a period of not more than six weeks beginning March 19, 1965. Under no circumstances may the Interim Social Code be extended beyond the renewal limit stated above.

The Interim Social Code shall read:

- A. These group social functions shall be registered with the office of the Student Deans solely to be used in case of emergency. Registration shall include: date, time, and place of function.
  - B. We encourage the inviting of adult guests to such social functions.
- III. Any person or organization who violates our Rollins College Interim Social Code will be referred to the Lower Court.
- ** IV. This code supersedes the interim administrative memorandum of November 27, 1964, regarding the College position on alcoholic beverages and social events.
- * The introductory paragraph and sections I, II, III above were passed by the Student Legislature on February 8, 1965.
- ** Section IV is an amendment proposed by the Faculty-Administration Committee.
- Dean Hicks moved that the Interim Social Code as amended be approved by the Faculty. The motion was seconded.
- Dean Hicks moved that Section I be amended to read as follows:
- I. Rollins students, in complete sympathy with the aim of the College to inculcate in its students an ever-increasing sense of responsibility and good citizenship, will conform to all laws of the State of Florida.

The motion was seconded.

In the ensuing discussion it was pointed out that the students had rejected such a statement in their discussion. Several members of the faculty emphasized that this is an interim code only, and felt that it should be adopted as presented by the students as a working basis for the committee charged with formulating a permanent social code. Section IV was discussed, and there appeared to be a consensus that this statement was superfluous.

A vote on the amendment was called for, and the amendment was carried.

Mr. Ross moved to amend by striking out Section IV. The motion was seconded and carried.

Dean Hicks' original motion, as amended, was put to a vote and carried.

Minutes 2-12-65

A vigorous discussion continued in which it was emphasized that this code as proposed is of an interim nature, and that the work of the Permanent Social Code committee might be made more difficult, if not jeopardized, by having to start out with the amended code, and that the ideas in the amendment could be referred to the Permanent Code committee as recommendations from the Faculty. Several members expressed the feeling that the interim code proposed by the students was workable, and it was pointed out that the rules in the R book remain intact.

Interim Code approved as presented by the student Legislature

Dean Hicks moved that the Faculty rescind the previous action and approve the Interim Social Code as presented by the students. This consists of the introductory paragraph and Sections I, II, III. The motion was seconded and carried.

Amendment recommended to committee.

Dean Hicks moved that the above amendment to Section I be referred to the Permanent Social Code committee, as a recommendation from the Faculty. The motion was seconded and carried.

Faculty-administration representation on committee

Mr. Ross moved that the Faculty approve the recommendation of the Faculty-Administration Committee that the faculty-administration representation on the Permanent Social Code Committee be composed of three members of the Faculty-Administration Committee, three members of the Faculty elected at large and the two Student Deans. The motion was seconded and carried. Mr. Brackney, Dean Darrah, and Mr. Ross were elected. Mrs. Burnett, Mr. DeGroot, and Mr. Wavell were selected by the Faculty-Administration Committee as its representatives.

The Faculty adjourned at 5:30.

Richard S. Wolfe
Secretary of the Faculty
